Testimonials

Dan Evans - Head Men's Basketball Coach
North Georgia University

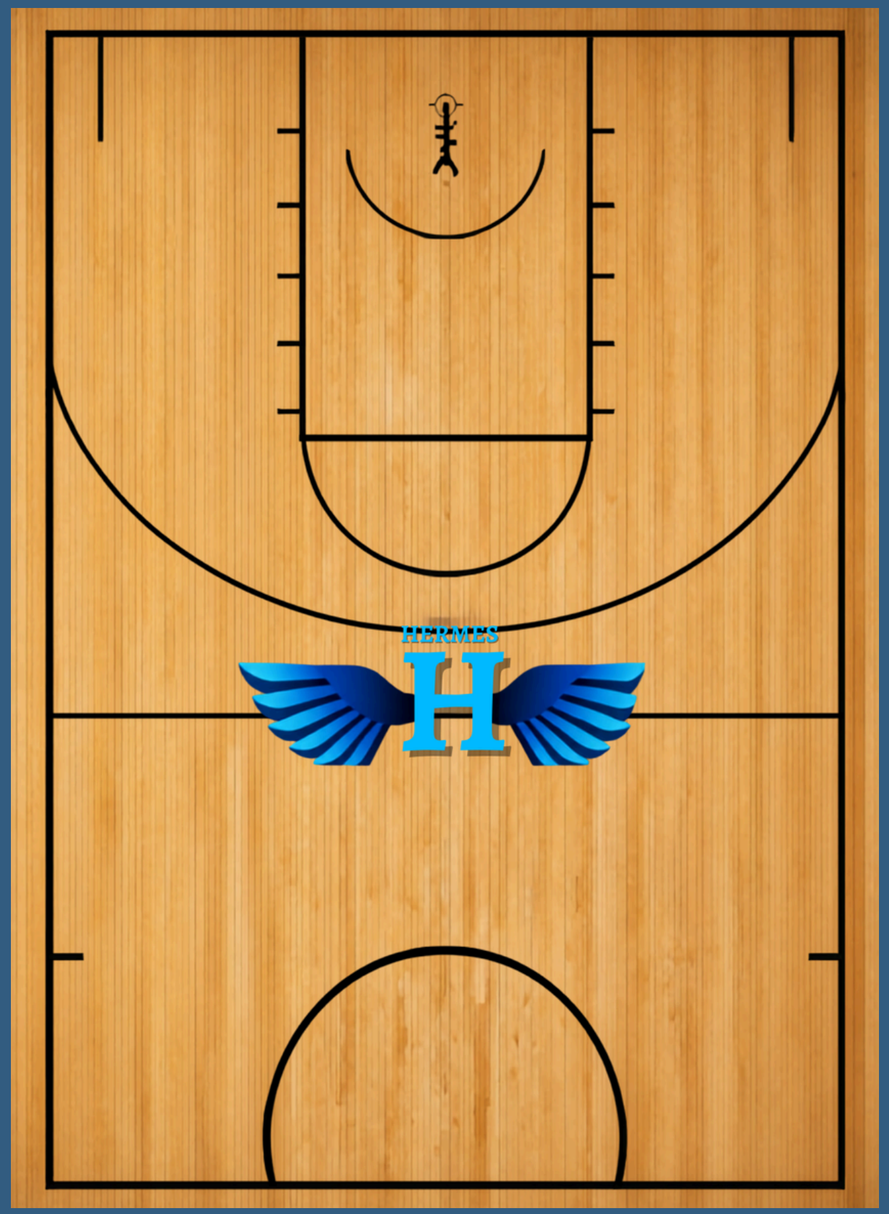

★★★★★

"Our time in Grece with SLAA was powerful for our players, coaches and families. Being immersed in Greek culture through historic sites, varied cities and basketball made for a memorable experience for everyone. The organization by James and his staff was top notch. The logistics on the ground were sharp but flexible to account for our large group. I would recommend SLAA to anyone looking to provide a life-changing trip to their program."

Peter Fusilero - Player Development Coach
Washington Wizards

★★★★★

"The opportunity to travel alongside James Pristouris and his incredible staff at SLAA was a once in a lifetime experience. The passion, energy and family feel made each day so rewarding. It was a blessing to travel to the amazing sights and see the rich history of Greek basketball. I'm grateful to have shared my knowledge, connect with so many great people and be a part of a supportive and professional environment. I would go back in a heartbeat."

Testimonials

Sam Ebersold - George Washington University
Men's Basketball Director of Player Development

★★★★★

"SLAA Greece Tour was one of a kind experience. As a Basketball Junkie it was special being surrounded by such rich basketball tradition. Competing verse high level clubs, having dinners with HOF players & creating lasting friendships makes SLAA and the Greece Tour very special to me."

Steve Miknis - Westchester Knicks Assistant Coach

"In a world of many Basketball programs, Super League Athletic Academy [SLAA] is what I would consider the gold standard of organizations. All of my coaching travels have given me the oppurtunity to see and learn about what gets the best out of players and their communities... and this is without question the leader of the pack!!!"
